

From One House To Another ~Notes from Sophia Mason

First House

The house of the present; what is occurring now as well as beginnings and new ventures; the individuals personal appearance, general attitude, habit, temperament, character, disposition, and health and well being.

Grandfather in a female's chart
Grandmother in a male's chart
Great grandchildren
Marriage partner of the third sibling
Fifth child in a male's chart
Brothers and sisters of friends
Friends of one's brother or sisters
Former marriage partner of first mate
Mate's business partner
Mate's or Business partner's third sibling
Nieces and nephews
Marriage and business partners of nieces and nephews
Fourth mate or business partner

Second House

The house of personal finances, moveable possessions, negotiable assets, profit and loss, personal wealth and how money is spent and saved.

Step-brothers and step-sisters
Father's second sibling in a male's chart
Mother's second sibling in a female's chart
Boyfriend's father in a female's chart
Girlfriend's mother in a male's chart
Friend of the family
First child of a boss or superior
Romantic attachment of a boss or superior
Father of a female friend mother of a male friend

Third House

The house of individual mental attributes, and primary and secondary education; short trips, and all forms of communication letters, phone calls, documents and contracts; all forms of transportation such as cars, busses, bicycles, and motorcycles; accidents and minor changes.

First Sibling (brother or sister)
Neighbors
Neighborhood merchants
Children of friends
Children of one's daughter or son-in-law through a previous marriage
Marriage partner of the native's ninth house brother-in-law or sister-in-law (the mate's first sibling)
Marriage partner of the third child in a male's chart
Friends of the native's children
Parent of a co-worker
First grandchildren's marriage or business partner

Fourth House

This house governs the home, real estate, property and land developments; emotional security and home environment; parents, family members and individuals who reside in the native's home at one time or another; older people; and the grave; end of life and the affairs surrounding the latter part of life. Natives with more than one planet in the fourth house often develop an interest in working with real estate, managing hotels and apartment buildings, and working in areas involving restaurants, catering, bakeries, foods and farming.

Parents, parents-in-law and step-parents *(the male parent in a female's chart and the female parent in a male's chart)

Co-worker of a friend

First child in a female's chart

Boss' Marriage partner

Father's third sibling in a male's chart

Mother's third sibling in a male's chart

Mother's third sibling in a female's chart

Father's first niece or nephew in a male's chart

Mother's first niece or nephew in a female's chart; child of the father's first sibling

Marriage partner of the fourth child in a female's chart

Marriage partner's boss

Fifth House

This house governs all places of amusement, theaters, schools, parties, entertainment, sporting events and participation in games and sports; gambling, speculation and investments; love relationships, children in general, offspring, courtship and pleasure; and personal creativity.

Children in General

First child in a male's chart

Marriage partner of a friend

Marriage or business partner of a step-child

Marriage or business partner if the fourth child in a male's chart

Second sibling (brother or sister)

Lover or romantic attachment

Friend of the husband or wife

Domestic pet regarded as a child

Entertainer

Sixth House

This house governs affairs concerned with illnesses, working conditions, co-workers, servicemen, repairmen (plumbers electricians, handymen) inferiors, farmers, small pets, tenants, foods for maintaining health, the armed forces, police, red cross, peace corp and other such volunteer organizations, clothing in general and individuals who deal with it such as dry cleaners, seamstresses, and tailors; restaurants where food is sold and prepared and those who work and deal in such commodities.

Aunts and uncles on the father's side in a female's chart

Aunts and uncles on the mother's side in a male's chart

Co-workers and employees

Tenants

Second child in a female's chart

Neighbor's parent

The husband or wife of one's secret lover

Seventh House

This house deals with companionships, love of justice, peace and harmony, the mate, partnerships, general public, open enemies, litigation, contracts, physicians, attorneys, counselors, sweethearts, and all things of beauty; finer wearing apparel, jewelry, art, sociability, interior decorating, furriers, beauticians, cosmeticians, florists, and all matters connected with marriage and divorce.

First marriage or business partner

Third sibling

Nieces and nephews

Marriage or business partners of nieces and nephews

Second child in a male's chart

Marriage or business partner of the fifth child in a male's chart

Grandfather in a male's chart

Grandmother in a female's chart

Attorney

Astrologer

Open enemies

Individuals who provide services such as a CPA or marriage or school counselors

Eighth House

Deals with masses of people, group cooperation, and activities of all kinds: Esp nightmares, unusual dreams, spirituality, the occult and seances, underhanded tactics, dictators, gangsters, compelling forces, and inversion; affairs concerned with money belonging to others; the partner's money, legacies, wills, property taxes, retirement funds and social security; property in escrow; changes in attitude, situation and conditions; and sexuality, surgery, surgeons and general conditions surrounding the individual's death.

Step-brothers and step-sisters on the step-father's side in a female's chart and the step-mother's side in a male's chart

Third child in a female's chart

Boyfriend's mother

Girlfriend's father

Father's second sibling in a female's chart

Mother's second sibling in a male's chart

Brothers and sisters of co-workers

Ninth House

This house deals with philosophy, public opinion, publishing, advertising, prophetic dreams, visions, and intuition; individuals who deal with future trends such as merchandise buyers, forecasters, religion ministers, priests, nuns, and missionaries; long trips, legal matters, newspapers, books and other published material, and news from a distance; college and adult edu classes; instructors and educators; the patronage of individuals of wealth or influence; good luck and future growth or expansion; charities, welfare community services and aid to dependent children; judges and courts of law; contact with individuals who live at a distance or with those of different social levels, races, colors or nationality; strangers who enter an individual's life and play an important role.

the patronage of individuals who live at a distance,

Second marriage partner

Mate's first sibling

Business partner's first sibling

Third child in a male's chart

Grandchildren

Fourth sibling

Friend of a friend

Marriage partner of first sibling

Parent of a co-worker

Tenth House

This house governs ambition for success in the areas of status, wealth and public recognition; ability for handling responsibilities coupled with skillful maneuvering in overcoming obstacles; submission to those in authority while striving to achieve a position of authority; credit rating, reputation, scandal, rank in life, the boss, superior and anyone representing influence and power; parent or an older, mature, serious individual; past conditions; sometimes the culmination of a long standing problem; administrators, presidents, mayors, councilmen, and anyone paid by city, state or federal taxes.

Parents, step-parents and parents-in-law *(female parent in a woman's chart, male parent in a male's chart)

Fourth child in a female's chart

Boss or employer

Father's third sibling in a female's chart

Mother's third sibling in a male's chart

Cousins

Husband or wife of the first child in a woman's chart

Child of a co-worker

Eleventh House

This house deals with new, progressive, unconventional and unexpected events and circumstances; affairs concerned with astrology, friends, acquaintances, clubs and organizations and individual aspirations; and activities dealing with inventions, radio, TV, electricity, automobiles, modern mechanical devices and engineers.

Friends

Step-children and adopted children

Daughters-in-law and sons-in-law (generally the spouse of the first child in a male's chart)

Fourth child in a male's chart

Fifth sibling

Marriage partner of the second sibling

First mate or business partner's second sibling

Love relationships of nieces and nephews

Love relationship of the first mate or business partner

Twelfth House

Deals with impressions surroundings make on the individual with a tendency to pick up vibrations in the immediate environment, whether good or bad. In the positive sense, this is the house of lofty, idealistic and refined ideas. It also deals with the promotion of others whom the individual feels are deserving. Negatively, the individual may try to withdraw from reality; therefore, it is also the house of escapism. Various individuals seek different means of escapism; some through abuse of drugs or alcohol, and others through day dreaming or extended sleep. This also is the house of psychism and witchcraft, and governs how the individual compassionately and sympathetically responds to others.

Aunts and uncles on the father's side in a male's chart and the mother's side in a female chart

Secret Enemy

Fifth child in a female's chart

Co-worker's marriage partner

Boss or those in authority over the first sibling

Mate's co-worker